What Is DVR?

The Delaware Division of Vocational Rehabilitation (DVR) is the public program that helps people with physical or mental disabilities to obtain or retain employment. In addition, an Independent Living Program helps individuals with disabilities function in the community. DVR's commitment is to help people with disabilities increase independence through employment.

What Is DVR's Goal?

The goal of DVR is to help you achieve successful EMPLOYMENT. Individuals are:

- assigned to work with a trained Vocational Rehabilitation Counselor,
- assisted in deciding their choice of an appropriate employment goal through the review of medical and work history, education, test results, and interest and abilities
- encouraged to develop individualized services to obtain their desired job.

What Services Are Available?

- Vocational Assessment
- Employment Planning
- Counseling & Guidance
- Job Placement
- Follow-up

Who Is Eligible For DVR Services ?

A person is determined eligible for DVR services when he or she:

- has a physical or mental impairment that interferes with the ability to obtain or maintain employment
- requires the services of DVR to become employed

What Types of Jobs Have Individuals Obtained?

- Administrative & Management
- Clerical
- Construction
- Computer Technicians & Related Production
- Sales & Marketing
- Service Industry
- Transportation & Material Moving
- Health Services
- Landscaping Services

What Is The Cost For Services?

Most services through DVR are free. However, you may have to assist with partial payment of some services. If you are responsible for the partial payment of any service, your counselor will work with you to develop a plan that best suits your financial situation.

Other DVR Support Programs

DVR offers special programs to support individuals in the following areas:

- School to Work Transition
- Benefits Counseling
- Evidence Based Supported Employment for Individuals with Substance Abuse and Mental Illness
- Supported Employment Services for Individuals with Developmental Disabilities
- Independent Living
- Deaf and Hard of Hearing

The Office of the Director is responsible for the overall statewide administration of all of the Divisions policies, programs procedures, services, and activities.
